Project Description

USAID/Malawi is embarking on a new strategy development process and setting a vision for a new strategy that builds on the current multi-sectoral approach to the complex, entrenched development problems facing Malawi.

Topical Reviews: (youth in development, gender equality/women's empowerment, urbanization, public-service management, biodiversity) (2)

- (1) Identify external literature for four to six topical discussion papers that will become critical inputs into the strategy design, with support from USAID/Malawi staff (as needed);
- (2) Summarize relevant literature in an annotated bibliography;
- (3) Review internal literature to summarize the current state of the topic for USAID/Malawi; and
- (4) Summarize findings and recommendations (including information gaps) in a Discussion Paper.
- (5) Other duties, as time permits.
